Definition and Origins

"Square Wal" appears to be a colloquial or perhaps a stylized term used within cricket circles—possibly a misspelling or variation of "Square Wall," or an internal nickname for a visual or data representation element associated with the cricket calendar. Given the limited references in official cricket documentation, the term is likely a specialized reference to a visual or structural component used to display the calendar's layout or data.

Alternatively, some cricket analysts suggest "Square Wal" is a stylized branding or shorthand for a specific graphical element embedded in official publications or digital platforms used by the England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) during 2020. This element might include:

- A visual grid or matrix representing match fixtures.
- An official emblem or logo stylized as "Square Wal."
